TYPES OF QUESTIONS

1. YES / NO QUESTIONS

- Do you like chocolate?                      Yes, I do.
- Is he from India?                                No, he isn't.

2. INFORMATION QUESTIONS

- Also called wh-questions.
- They need more information in the answer.
- Usually start with who, what, how, etc.

- Who are you?
- Where are you from?

SUBJECT AND OBJECT QUESTIONS

➤ OBJECT questions are the most common. We use them when we are asking about the object of the sentence.

- What did you lose?                      I lost my purse.

➤ SUBJECT questions ask about the subject of the sentence and are formed differently.

- Lucy kissed John.
- Who kissed John?      Lucy.

HOW ARE QUESTIONS MADE?

1. Invert the subject and the verb

- Are you ok?

2. Add an extra verb

- Did you go out last night?

3. Invert the auxiliary verb and subject

- How did you do it?

QUESTION TAGS

Question tags turn a statement into a question. They are used to check information.

They are made using auxiliary verbs and subject pronouns. Negative ones are usually contracted.

- It's warm today, isn't it?
- I'm in charge of the food, aren't I?
- He can help, can't he?
- We aren't late, are we?
